

One Poem

Jasmine Dreame Wagner

Other People

Have sympathy for the sand.

There are no coincidences

in the phone's light on the deluge of choice.

Here I am, on one side of its white ravine.

I have no sympathy for banks!

The cinematic is where I run to or from a pursuit of a view that will make me feel time exists outside of myself

as the heat of the day

rises in the grass

on its way to other people.
